

Contra Costa County Legal Professionals Association
Membership Meeting Featuring:
BEST PRACTICES TO MITIGATING BIAS

Sejal Thakkar, Esq.

Dubbing herself "Chief Civility Officer", Sejal is not your average employment law attorney. Her more than fifteen years of experience advising clients, human resources personnel, and legal counsel regarding sound, standard employment practices uncovered a need - and personal passion - for bringing more proactive, relevant, and impactful workplace training programs to her clients and their teams. Her highly experiential customized workshops tailored to executives, managers, and individual contributors bring the courtroom to the training room in an interactive, engaging environment that favors human stories over compliance checklists.
